

Benita McKerry

Advocate and Protection and Advocacy for Beneficiaries with Social Security (PABSS) Coordinator, Native American Disability Law Center

Benita McKerry, a member of the Diné (Navajo) Nation and from Dennehotso, AZ, is an advocate with the Native American Disability Law Center. She has years of experience in monitoring group homes and detention centers on the Navajo Nation to ensure people with disabilities are free from abuse, informed of their rights, and have equal access to services in the Four Corners Region.

Benita also serves as the coordinator for PABSS.