

August Martin

Vocational Rehabilitation Program Specialist, American Indian Vocational Rehabilitation Services, Rehabilitation Services Administration, U.S. Department of Education

August Martin is Tlingit and a member of the Central Council of Tlingit and Haida Indian Tribes of Alaska (CCTHITA). He has 18 years' experience as a vocational rehabilitation program specialist at the Rehabilitation Services Administration. He also has 3 years' experience teaching at Western Washington University's Capacity Building Project (Oyate), and 4 years' serving as a project director for the CCTHITA Tribal Vocational Rehabilitation Project.

August was Co-Chair and Chair of the Alaska State and Tribal Consortium of Vocational Rehabilitation. He was active on the Statewide Independent Living Council and served as a Region 10 representative on the Regional Rehabilitation Continuing Education Program. August was elected and spent 3 years on the CCTHITA Community Council, of which he was appointed to the board of directors for the Southeast Alaska Health Consortium.