

Rylin Rodgers

Disability Policy Advisor, Microsoft

Rylin Rodgers serves on Microsoft's Accessibility Team as a disability policy advisor. She strives to impact disability policy in the areas of technology, workforce, and fundamental rights. Rylin's work is influenced by her lived experiences with disability. She is dyslexic and has idiopathic pulmonary fibrosis, and the mother of two young adults with physical disabilities and medical complexity. Her family is ALL IN for disability policy!